

HAS YOUR INCOME BEEN IMPACTED BY COVID-19?

YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR RENT RELIEF

The State of Hawai'i's Rent Relief and Housing Assistance Program, with support from Catholic Charities Hawai'i and Aloha United Way, provides assistance to Hawai'i renters who have experienced a reduction in income due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The program provides renters at risk of eviction with assistance in making monthly rent, as well as financial counseling.

Applications for assistance are currently being accepted for rent payments due between August 1 and December 28, 2020.

Rent payments can be made for amounts due from August 1 through December 28, 2020, without a need to recertify income. Payments can be made in lump sums of up to three months at a time.

Final details are being worked out on a separate program to cover rents and mortgages beginning on March 1, 2020. Once the program is set, a formal announcement will be made.
